

PADS

The PADS project is based in Uganda and is supported by Stourbridge Meeting.

The PADS project will provide funding towards a local coordinator for a reusable sanitary pads project based in the Kasese District of Uganda. The project will teach local women and girls how to make the sanitary pads and holders for themselves so that they can meet their needs without relying on donated products.

